- Independent curation of exhibitions in collaboration with gallery
- Research and presentation of artwork selections for your gallery's consulting clients
- Special event collaboration & design

SERVICES TO ARTISTS

- Identifying appropriate galleries for your work
- Shopping your work to galleries, both brick & mortar galleries & online galleries
- Submitting work to social media outlets

GUIDELINES

- Forager will work simply as an agent for the gallery or artist. Any agreement or contract resulting from Forager's work will be exclusively between the gallery and artist.
- All proposals are confidential.
- Forager will be available Monday- Friday, 9am -5pm Pacific time (subject to change to 9am-5pm in whatever time zone Forager finds herself in!). Emails or phone calls will be answered during that time. Requests received outside those hours will be attended to during the next office hours. Forager will provide notice to clients if/when there will be an extended period when office hours will not be available (vacations, illness & such).
- Deadlines should be made clear at the beginning of a project. If a quicker turn around is needed, Forager will do its best to accommodate you, according to existing schedule and other projects.
- All services listed above and all correspondence (emails, phone calls, faxes, etc) related to your project are billed on a project by project basis (rates are confidential, please email Lesley at lesley@artsyforager.com for rate information). Payment is due to Lesley Frenz via PayPal upon receipt of invoice.
